

Media Advisory

Conf Call: Trust and Wall Street Five Years after Lehman:
What do Investors Think? How is Wall Street Responding?

What: Conference call to discuss new research on American attitudes toward Wall Street, attitudes of the financial professionals working on Wall Street and potential remedies for investor distrust.

When: Thursday, September 26, at 2:00 PM ET

Where: Call in: 646-307-1300; code 379004

Who: Knut A. Rostad, President
Institute for the Fiduciary Standard

Kevin Carroll, Managing Director and Associate General Counsel
Securities Industry and Financial Markets Association (SIFMA)

Karlynn Bowman, Senior Fellow
American Enterprise Institute

Jordan A. Thomas, Partner
Labaton Sucharow LLP

Background: There is much agreement in diverse policy quarters that distrust pervades Wall Street and this distrust harms the economy. A new report from American Enterprise Institute underscores the severity of this distrust; a recent survey of Wall Street professionals by Labaton Sucharow concludes many young professionals on Wall Street “have lost their moral compass.” These reports, among others, raise the question: How is Wall Street responding?

More Information:
Knut A. Rostad
kar@rpjadvisors.com
703-821-6616 x 429